

Fact Sheet

Tuolumne River Regional Park, River Pavilion & Learning Theater Project

Project Description

The Tuolumne River Pavilion and Learning Theater Project consists of a medium sized covered gathering pavilion and minimum one hundred seat terraced outdoor learning theater to support expansion of educational and recreational programming along the Tuolumne River within the Tuolumne River Regional Park, Legion Park Site. This important component is a significant destination among a series of recreational opportunities along the City's river front.

Funding Source

California State Parks Grant Funds
Local Park Funds

