

Stanislaus County HMIS

Consumer Notice

This agency is participating in the Stanislaus County Homeless Management Information System (HMIS). Stanislaus County HMIS collects basic information about clients receiving services from this agency. This basic information is used to get accurate count of individuals, families and services needed for those who are homeless and/or receiving supportive services. Accurate counts will allow the Stanislaus Community System of Care Collaborative (StanCSOC) to better serve the needs of our local community.

We only collect information that we consider appropriate and required by our funding sources. The collection and use of personal information is guided by strict standards of confidentiality. A copy of our Privacy Policy describing our privacy practice is available on request.

You will also have the ability to share your personal information with other local agencies by completing a Release of Information form. This will allow those agencies to work in a cooperative manner to provide you with efficient and effective services.
